Evangelizing Around the Globe to Jews & Gentiles

January 2015

Dear Partner and Friend,

Shalom from snowy Jerusalem on today January 8, 2015. The snow reminds us of what the Bible says in Psalm 51. Emphasis on verses 7-12, “Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow”. Surely, King David experienced snow here in Jerusalem 3000 years ago. The city is all white and beautiful.

Along with his own conviction of sins, David also had a deep reverence (fear of respect) for God and His Holiness. David requested Him to create in him a clean heart, to renew a right spirit within him, to cast him not away from His presence, and to take not The Holy Spirit from him – further David asked The Lord to restore the Joy of salvation, and to uphold him with a willing spirit. Are you willing to yield to God today? A broken spirit and contrite heart, God will not despise. David experienced forgiveness and renewal. Surely our Father has washed away our sins by the blood of His Son Jesus the Messiah and we are whiter than snow in His eyes. Then we can say as David said in Psalm 51:13 “Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners shall be converted to You”. God can use anyone who is willing and available, He is able. Praise God that His Holy Spirit has come upon us to testify of Him – Acts 1:8.

Bethlehem Outreach

The last month, on December 24, our team had a great outreach. Our friend, an ex- Muslim from Cairo residing in Holland joined our team. She loves the Jewish people and she joins us in Israel and other parts of the world to bless the house of Israel by giving them the Messiah. Her testimony how she came to Jesus touches the heart of many Palestinians and Jews as well. Our team partnered with the Jerusalem Baptist Church to share the light. Many heard the message, many bibles were given and the seed was planted in many hearts.

Among many conversations, we thank God for Hani, who took a bible from my hand, heard a clear presentation of the Gospel of The Son God. Hani prayed with me a unique prayer - a prayer asking God to help him to know The Son of God – he was hungry to know truth, I saw it through his eyes, but he was wrestling to believe in the Son of God and the Islamic pressure that he told me about. I have given his name to a local Arab congregation in Jerusalem for the follow up. Pray for him.

Darlene and I thank God for you personally and we pray for you. We thank you for your prayers and support as we partner together into 2015 to fulfill His great work through us all. Romans 1:16

Please we appreciate your prayers as we prepare for the next upcoming evangelistic outreach that many souls will be saved. You can go online to www.wmoutreach.org to see our schedule for 2015. Next outreach is Costa Rica February 1-3. We are so excited to partner with local churches bringing the Word of God. 2014 was very fruitful and we look forward to what the Lord will do through our partnership in 2015.

Thank you and May the Lord bless you.

Fruit of the Vine – Testimonial

“As a small Christian school teacher on the lookout for a senior class mission trip; WMO provided the perfect divine venue. My students wanted to go to Israel, and although I didn’t discourage them, I felt it was a trip beyond our reach. Not so – as I continue to learn, with God all things are possible . . . Henry and Darlene stand on that truth, and inspire many to test their limits. My students were disciplined, stretched & impacted for life. Since that first trip with WMO for the annual Shavuot outreach, I joined Henry and Darlene on two more outreaches in Israel, one trip to Liberia, and two to Tanzania. Most striking to me is their commitment to evangelism – it isn’t a vocation for them, it is a lifestyle. Henry and Darlene are as likely to draw someone into God’s kingdom in a casual conversation as in a crowded evangelistic campaign. They exude God’s love and despite language and cultural barriers, people are attracted. Many become life-long friends and fellow servants of God.”
